Inbound Lead Levels

How "who are they, and why now?" turns into a level. Find the person's role on the left and their strongest signal across the top.

Level 0 · Not a buyer

Thank-you page, saved in Salesforce

Level 1 · Interested teacher

Thank-you page + an email, no call

Level 2 · Worth a quick call

Books with the BDR

Level 3 · Ready to talk

Books with the growth manager

| Who they are | No sign of change | District is actively shopping | Adopting in the next two school years | Message says reviewing, piloting or pricing | On the adoption committee |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| District leader superintendent, curriculum director, CAO, T&L director; principals who decide for their whole school | 2 | 3 | 3 | 3 | 3 |
| Program lead math/STEM or curriculum coordinator, MTSS, Title I, SpEd director, assistant principal, principal of one school in a district | 2 | 3 | 3 | 3 | 3 |
| Coach or TOSA instructional and math coaches, teachers on special assignment | 2 | 3 | 2 | 2 | 3 |
| Teacher classroom, special ed, interventionists | 1 | 2 | 1-2 being settled | 2 | 3 |
| Not a buyer whatever role they picked | Level 0 · parents, students, vendors, press, high-school-only teachers, anyone outside the US and Canada | | | | |

Small districts start with the BDR

Under 1,000 students or a district score under 50: any 3 becomes a 2.

Just picked another curriculum

If the district just committed elsewhere, the lead drops one level.

Existing customers skip the grid

They go to their account owner (coming soon).